What the brand needed?

DLF aimed to enhance awareness and desirability of their premium residential projects by reaching a niche urban audience. Their goal was to build a perception of luxury living while driving qualified leads through a cost-effective digital strategy.

The Results

For DLF, we executed a community-focused campaign across 10 niche pages, generating over 100K views on reels. The engagement and conversion rate were outstanding, proving the effectiveness of community-driven marketing.

Our Approach

We amplified DLF through Mumbai's top community networks, creating festive buzz and maximum cultural relevance with curated placements across premium city pages.
